Work Capacity Tests

HSQ's need to be submitted to Luis Rivera prior to taking the pack test 801-342-5116

As a Forest Service employee or prospective employee who may be or is currently assigned wildland fire duties, you are required to fill out the Health Screening Questionnaire (HSQ) prior to conditioning for or taking the Work Capacity Test (WCT) at any level. The HSQ must be returned to your HSQ Coordinator (Luis F. Rivera). Upon review, you will be notified to either engage in physical activity related to the WCT or to seek further medical review. You may be offered a physical examination paid for by the Forest Service. To participate in assigned fire duties, you must pass the WCT at the level required by the agency to perform your duties. If you do not pass the test, further approval is required by the Forest Supervisor.

- 1) Complete FS-5100-31, Health Screening Questionnaire
- 2) Complete and sign the FS-5100-30, Consent Form

- 3) Turn in completed forms to Luis Rivera at the Provo SO
- 4) If all questions are marked "NO" you will be cleared to take the WCT
- a. You will receive written notification within 3 working days
- 5) If any question is marked "YES", you will be sent a letter with further direction
